

Kendriya Hindi Sansthan (Central Institute of Hindi, Agra)

Introduction

The Central Institute of Hindi (Kendriya Hindi Sansthan) was established in 1962. It is an autonomous organization of the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India and is governed by the Central Board of Hindi Teaching (Kendriya Hindi Shikshan Mandal). Besides facilitation of Hindi Teaching-Training and higher studies in Hindi language and literature and comparative linguistics, its aim is promotion and propagation of Hindi at the national and international levels. The Institute has designed courses for teachers of non-Hindi speaking States as well as for countries like Sri Lanka and Afghanistan.

The Institute conducts, besides Hindi teaching, research on various aspects of Hindi such as contrastive linguistics, applied linguistics, lexicography, language teaching, stylistics, translation, sociolinguistics, psycholinguistics and culture. Many books on these subjects have been published by the Institute. The Institute has also brought out its own Text books as well as other useful books for Indian and foreign students. A research journal Gaveshna is brought out by the Institute and it also publishes research studies of high grade in the form of monographs and books. The work on Hindi Lok shabdakosh (Dictionary of the languages/Dialects of Hindi family) in 48 volumes is afoot. In addition to this, various Orientation and Refresher programmes run by the Regional Centres of the Institute have been contributing greatly in the growth of the Institute. With a view to enhance academic and intellectual growth of the Institute, all India Seminars organized on various subjects are the leading academic activities of the Institute.

The Headquarter of the Institute is situated at Agra in the State of Uttar Pradesh and its Regional Centres are at Delhi, Hyderabad, Shillong, Guwahati, Mysore, Dimapur, Bhuvaneshwar and Ahmedabad. The Central Institute of Hindi has specialized in training Hindi teachers of Non-Hindi speaking area. It also organizes short-term intensive orientation courses for them.

The Institute has developed several courses for teaching of Hindi as a foreign language through the latest language technology such as Digital Language Laboratory, Computer Lab and Audio-Visual Media.

In addition to its regular courses, the Institute also runs Evening Classes for vocational programmes in Applied Linguistics, Translation and Mass Communication & Journalism. Apart from these the Institute offers the following job-oriented courses with focus on efficiency in Hindi:
